

Ken Maciejewski

Sales and Business Development Manager, Opportunities Inc.

Ken Maciejewski is the Sales and Business Development Manager and a 16 year employee of Opportunities, Inc. He and his teams have fostered over 500% growth in that time through their customer focused and mission focused initiatives, what we call at Opportunities, Inc. our, “Heart for people and mind for business”.

Since 1966, Opportunities, Inc. has been assisting commercial, state and federal organization in gaining capacity and productivity needed to assemble, kit and package their products. Supporting ongoing business operations, surges in volume, special projects, or sample runs, with a flexible workforce and nearly 500,000 square feet of state of the art facilities and equipment to meet our customers’ ever changing needs.

Opportunities, Inc. is ISO compliant, as well as GMP compliant, USDA and FDA registered with a history of serving government, local and large global companies for over 50 years!

Opportunities, Inc. is a mission based organization that supports the training and employment of individuals with diverse abilities and barriers to employment while meeting the packaging needs of their customers. They produce government projects competitively and through the AbilityOne program. Opportunities, Inc. is the sole source provider for alkaline batteries to the state of Wisconsin, providing a co-branded product in partnership with Rayovac. Opportunities, Inc. also holds several AbilityOne procurement list set asides for repair parts of tactical vehicles.