

William Brockmiller, Labor Market Economist

Department of Workforce Development, Office of Economic Advisors

William (Bill) Brockmiller is the regional economist for the Western and Southwestern Regions of Wisconsin in the Office of Economic Advisors. He graduated from University of Upper Iowa in 1994 with a bachelor's degree in Marketing with additional emphasis in Economics. Bill also attended UW Madison.

Bill has been working for OEA since August 1994 and for the State of Wisconsin overall since January 1990. Bill is known for his ability to explain complex concepts in layman's language and his work in providing Labor Market Information to DWD's Unemployment Insurance Division.